For students wishing to complete a comprehensive in an area that is not on the program's pre-approved comps list, prior approval must be obtained from the curriculum committee. Students must provide the following to the Graduate Program Office in order for their request to be considered:

- A rationale for completing a comprehensive in the requested area.
- A reading list of sociological journals in the proposed area, to subsections of professional societies in the area, and the like.
- The composition of the comprehensive committee (supervisor, members).
- Confirmation of approval for the rationale and reading list, from the comprehensive committee.
